SUCCESSFUL AMATEUR AUTHORS.

Award of the Medals of the of ostall Amateur Association.

They were there on Saturday afternoon in the Smithsonian grounds-the public school children and their parents. Superintendent Powell was there to sperintensient Powell was there to speak a good word for the children, Mr. H. L. West was there with a number of good medals, and the patriarchal looking Secretary Noble was there to take the hands of those who received them and say "bless you my children, bless you." The Marine Band performed such dulect, inventie airs, as "Little Annte Rooney," Mother Goose," "Bye Bye Baby" and "See Saw."

The only thing that marred the interesting occasion of the annual award of medals to the prize winners of the medals to the prize winners of the "Washington Post's Amateur Authors' Association" was the weather. The dark and heavy clouds threatened a shower of rain at any moment. The grass was wet from fitful rainfalls earlier in the day, but, notwithstanding this there were recommended. this, there was many a pretty and bright-eyed school girl seated upon the platform, in front of which and on the green sward a good sized audience occupied chairs that had been provided for their accommodation. The grounds were fragrant with new mown hay, and occasionally occasionally a sky lark flitted over the cene, caroling its plaintive song. There was no sunshine but that of the smiles upon the faces of the young au thers, whose compositions had won fo them a skining gold medal.

Luckify the rain held my during the exercises, which were opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Barsigtt, paster of New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. Those school girls had been engaged for several weeks in writing compositions selected by Superintendent Powell, and on Saturday afternoon at 4 o clock not only had the medal at I o'clock not only had the medal winners and those deserving of honorable mention assembled upon the platform but many of their classmates, some of whom will be among the lucky ones next year.

ones next year. The scene was a novel one in the Satisfaction of the state of the state of the school children and their parents and the general public would have been very much larger. There was nothing, however, to be regretted, and the gathering dispersed to the patriotic tune of the state of the "The Star Spangled Banner," played by the band.

Thomas Street was drowned in the river near Alexandria vesterday afternoon by the capabling of a saliboat. He and two other companions, all of whem are residents of Washington went down the river on a pleasure trip. and all three were thrown in the water by a sudden squali. A resident of Aiexandria, by the name of Scott, succeeded in rescuing Street's companions. but he was unable to reach him. The body was soon afterward recovered and turned over to the authorities at Alexandria. Street's father is employed in the Patent Office and went to Alexand the as soon as he was notified of the Smith, con dueting themselves very unbecomingly, and he locked them up charged with disturbing a religious meeting. An hour or two afterward some of the members of the church called at the station and requested that they be released as they did not think they were the men wanted.

Services for Chridren.

The Church of the Reformation was beautifully decorated yesterday, it beautifully decorated yesterday. It being children's day. The opening hymn was followed by responsive reading and scripture lesson in concert. The infant class furnished several sough, and Dr. Kuhns and the pastor. Dr. Parsons made appropriate addresses. A liberal countribution was received from the school to furnish a had in the Children's Hospital and for the Osphans' Home.

Mr. Hewett also recognizes that a large element is opposed to Suncing cames, and he does not wish to antago nize it by attempting to play them. The legality of the games will be tested, however, before the season closes in order to define the rights of the club. In the meantime, the games will either be played at the Driving Park or at such Osphans' Home. the Orphans' Home.

Crap Shooters in Limbo.

Sunday alternoon Officer Hancock found. George Hawkins and a gang of thisteen others engaged in a crap game in Moore's alley, in the county. When they sighted the officer there was a general scattering, and Hawkins was the only one he succeeded in arresting. He fountied with the county of the c furnished adjateral for appearance to morrow, and warrants have been bound for the others. There is a determined effort on the part of the officers to break up these Sunday crap games Medical Springs, Pennsylvania,

THE DAILY CRITIC BASEBALL GOSSIP

THE SECOND SUNDAY GAME: AT THE DRIVING PARK.

HE WILMINGTONS WERE EASY VIGTIMS

A Large Crowd and a Good Contest---The Team is New in Condition ... The New Second Baseman.

The Washingtons played their second senday game yesterday at the Gentlemena' Driving Park, near Alexandria, and easily defeated the Wilmingtonwith the wonderful Anderson in the box. The Cape May wonder was very wild, sending eight men to bases on balls and bitting five. The delivery was o puzzie, however, to the local team or when he put the ball in the vicinity the plate, it was batted freely. On the other hand, Daniels was especially effective and pitched an excellent game. He gave but one base on balls, and only allowed seven scattering hits to be made off him, and these only after the chances had been given to retire the

Owing to the condition of the ground, good fielding was out of the question, and both sides made a num-ber of costly errors, but the Washingtons had a majority of them. Under-wood played right field and made one of the prettiest plays of the game in a of the prettiest plays of the game in a long throw from the field which would have put out a runner at home had Nicholas held the ball.

About 1,000 persons witnessed the game and enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The only drawback was the long wait for the train after the game. The game was concluded at 6 o'clock and the crowd had to wait for nearly an and the crowd had to walt for nearly an hour for the regular train. President Hewett is endeavoring to arrange with the railroad officials for the running of excursion trains and will probably be able to have better accommodations next Sunday. Charging the full fare to Alexandria also caused considerable rumbling, but this will also be reme-lled by next Sunday and a reduced rate

President Hewett is thinking seriously f getting another location for Sunday smes, and if it is possible will secure Ivy City, which is much more eligibly located than the Driving Park and considerably easier of access. It can be reached by both the B. & O. R. R. and the Eckington line, and the grand stand is amply large enough to accommodate any crowd that will patronize Sunday games. In case he does not secure it the games will be played at the Driving Park, and a number of improvements are contemplated. The home plate will be placed where the judges' stand now is and scats extended on either side of the grand stand, so as to exclude people from the infield of the race course, where they interfere with the players. Other arrangements looking to the comfort and accommodation of the spec-tations are also contemplated:

To day the Washingtons and Wil-mingtons will play at Atlantic Park, and Phillips and Wehrle will be the opposing batteries. Wurtz, the new second baseman, is expected to be here in time to play. He will be here surely to have left, on Saturday. Biddle is away have left, on Saturday. Riddle is away in Philadelphia, where his mother is seriously ill, and so Nicholas has to do all the backstop work. With Wurtz on the team, the men will go back to their old positions, and the team will begin to look a little more like a ball team and less like a hospital.

SULLIVAN'S PAITH The Washington manager is confident that the club will now commence to recover some of its lost ground, and lee ufidently expects to be very near first ace by the Fourth of July. The pitchers are getting in first-class condi-tion. Daniels being the only one who is complaining. His arm, which has been sore ever since he joined the team, is getting all right, and he is pitching be ter ball every time he plays. Jordan's finger is nearly well, and by the end of the week, if there are no more accidents, the men will be back in their old form. Wilmington, Jersey City, and Worces-ter, are the teams that will do battle with the Washington team this week, and against such clubs the boys ought easily to pull up a few pegs in the race.

SUNDAY GAMES IN MARYLAND. Por some time complaints have been made that some young men were in the habit of disturbing the meetings at Bethany Cheen compared to the settled during the week. Mr. Barnie's coursed proposed to the settled during the week. Mr. Barnie's counsel propose to apply to the courts for a writ of kaleus corpus, and the decision upon the application will be the accepted interpretation of the law in reference to Sunday ball playing until the next Legislature most.

the next Legislature meets.

In this city there will not be any at tempt made to test the locality of the Sunday games for the present. The management and its legal advisors are confident there is no law against them. but they realize that the Commissioners possess certain discretionary powers which might interfere with the playing of other games, and bence cause a great deal of frouble and lead to litigation that would injure the game.

Mr. Hewett also recognizes that a targe element is opposed to Sunday games, and he does not wish to antagomay select.

Temperance Education.

"The true means of temperance edu-cution" was the subject of Rev. Dr. Mayo's summen yesterday morning at the Church of Our Father. He said was time that the temperance reforms then should proceed on broader and more radical lines. Special attention should be given to temperance educa-tion. It was easier, he said, to teach too children the principles of temperanor than to reform one drankard or liquor dealer. He described the growth of boy from childhood to manhood and set forth the temperations that surrounded him from the time he was 12 until he was 21. The growing youth should be manhit to record interests. and as serious a vice as any other.

Injured by a Cable Car, The too sudden starting of a cable car at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Seventh street yesterday afternoon threw Miss Mary Staunton of 2315 L street to the pavement and injured her quite severely. She had just stepped on the car, and, being unable to obtain a seat, was standing upon the step. She was attended by Dr. Hamilton Leach, and afterward sent to her home in a cab.
